New York, N.Y. – April 5, 2022 – Tenadio Corp, a consulting firm specializing in advising patent owners and inventors, announced it has completed $54 million in financing for the Patent Capital Funding Program, a litigation finance program established by Tenadio's founding principal, Michael Ciuffo.

Waterford Capital led the structuring efforts for the transaction, which was privately placed with institutional investors via a platform managed by Finitive.

“The Patent Capital Funding Program is developing into the market's premier funding vehicle for patent infringement litigation. With each additional round of financing completed, the program is proving to be the “go-to” funding source for an expanding group of world class litigation firms and patent owners.” said Michael Ciuffo.

“The Patent Capital Funding Program continues to be a vital way for patent owners and inventors to access the capital needed to monetize their patents through litigation,” said Dave Piotrowski, Managing Director of Waterford Capital.
